

This page, from top Harrods of London Tranquil Orchard king-size duvet cover set £579 and Oxford pillowcases £189 for set of two, Lemon Geometric cushion £49 and bedspread £399, and Olive Green throw £299. Opposite page, top, from top Harrods of London Pink Stripe cushion £90, English Rose Oxford pillowcases £129 for set of two, Fuchsia Frill Oxford pillowcases £229 for set of two and English Rose king-size duvet cover, part of two-pillowcase set £399; bottom, from top Harrods of London Garden Maze Oxford pillowcases £629 for set of two and king-size flat sheet £549

Bed & Bath, Third Floor; and harrods.com

Your WILDEST dreams

ECHOING NATURE'S MOST captivating patterns, the new Harrods of London bedding designs provide a garden-inspired habitat for the most satisfying of snoozes. And with cotton throws, cushions and bedspreads in lemon yellows and bright fuchsia pinks, the collection is guaranteed to make you wild about sleep.

Bed or flower bed? With the English Rose bedding set, you get to decide. The 300-thread-count Egyptian cotton, satin finish is decorated with a romantic floral print, the abundant blooms reaching across the duvet and matching pillowcases all the way to the edge of the Oxford borders – a maximalist's dream. A vintage colour palette, layering pale pinks and intense reds atop a wash of sepia, adds depth to the design. Complete the look with the vivid Pink Stripe cushions, made from organic cotton and finished with dainty frills.

The floral Tranquil Orchard, meanwhile, is rendered in green hues to induce a sense of calm. On the 400-thread-count set is an eye-catching pattern inspired by traditional floral Jacquard, framed by a white Oxford border that lends the design a touch of hotel-style elegance.

For those who prefer something more understated, Garden Maze showcases a synergy between pattern and design, with embroidered motifs forming an ornamental border along the 600-thread-count Egyptian cotton set. But if you're more of a frill seeker, look to the Fuchsia Frill collection; its 400-thread-count Egyptian cotton percale is embroidered with a diamond-motif border and finished with pleated ruffles that will give your bed a luxurious boost.

For more ways to bring the outside in, the 400-thread-count Lattice Embroidery will introduce some texture to your bedroom. It recreates the look of garden tiles and fences by intersecting a background of delicate lattice with rows of tile motif – all achieved using cameo-green embroidery. And with our Olive Green cotton throw arranged on the bed, you'll be sleeping among nature's most soothing shades.

It's all about bewitching blooms and gorgeous greenery in Harrods of London's enchanting new bedding collection

